As you pay so will the rink be in condition. $10.00 had to be spent for a meter box because light privileges had been abused. Mr. A. Kennedy made a motion at the meeting that the ice should be softer! Margaret Kennedy received a fracture of her elbow and Arthur Belmeur fracture of an ankle, when they fell on the ice on the rink.

Music was heard on the rink Sunday night. It was noticed that the skaters don't know how to skate to music as yet.

Giselle Labonte has returned from visiting her mother in Quebec.

St. Albert Skating Rink To Have Music

ST. ALBERT—A suitable P.A. system so that skaters may glide to music every Tuesday and Sunday evenings, is to be obtained by the Rink Committee in the very near future. At its Jan. 9 meeting the committee discussed plans for bettering the financial position of the rink. Expenses have been high this year, with the purchase of a permanent pump, and collections for season tickets as yet cannot cope with expenditure.

Parents, the committee is striving hard to see that you and your children get the most from rink in skating enjoyment and hockey training. We need your moral and financial support. In the future watch for notices of skating parties, moccasin dances or carnivals. Come out for a good time, and simultaneously help the children of your community.

The St. Albert Girls' Health and Recreation group has entered the new year with two well-attended meetings, in spite of the cold weather. The girls are now making good progress in tumbling and vaulting, but folk and square dancing still hold first place in popularity. Skating and dancing parties may soon be held.

Magistrate's Court

Florence Whitford—3 months for breaking and entering.

B. Haydon — two years at Prince Albert, for breaking and entering with intent to steal.

Sally Breland — four months.

MAID AMONG 2,000 MEN is Capt. "Pat" Wright, of Port Hope, Ont., only woman attached to the Special Brigade. Here she talks over a menu with army cook, Pte. S. M. King of Creston, B.C. Miss Wright is a dietician.

CLYDE NEWS BRIEFS

Two very interesting curling games were witnessed here last Wednesday evening, when two rinks from Barrhead came over to compete for the Challenge Cup that has circulated for years among the curlers at Clyde, Westlock, Barrhead and Athabasca. This cup, which has rested in the hands of Clyde curlers for the past two years, took trip on Wednesday to Barrhead, as both teams won their games over Clyde. Ronnie Kendall of Barrhead, defeated Joe Hess of Clyde 17-9, and Dan Waxed's rink from Barrhead defeated Philip Shank of Clyde 13-10.

The ladies rink that attended the bonspiel at Barrhead won fourth place in the Citizens' competition. This was of interest, because two of the players are curling for the first season. Skipped by Mrs. Gus Forseen, the rink consists of Mrs. Phillip Shank, Mrs. Bert Woodcock and Mrs. Julian Kinskiwsky.

The Clyde teaching staff was defeated on Monday night by a rink from the Westlock teaching staff, skipped by Mr. Stanies. G. R. Mealing skippered the Clyde rink with Mr. Ben Gabert, Miss Margaret Forbes and Miss E. Hall on the rink.

A ladies' rink from Edmonton visited Clyde on Sunday afternoon and were defeated by the Clyde Ladies', whose rink consisted of Mrs. L. G. Nelson, Mrs. E. Aultman, Miss Margaret Dunn and Mrs. H. East.

The regular whist drive, sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, Clyde branch, was enjoyed by a good crowd, with ladies' first prize going to Mrs. Rowland (glass dishes). Consolation went to Mrs. A. T. Marshall (a lotion set). Gent's first prize was presented to Mr. C. Berwick (a pen). Consolation went to Mr. C. E. Hill (a pen knife). Refreshments were served by the ladies.

Harry Stieger has closed his blacksmith shop for three weeks and is in Calgary taking a welder's course.

Friends are sorry to hear that Mrs. George MacLachlan is a patient in the local hospital.

Saturday morning, police were investigating the theft of a car in Clyde belonging to Charlie Mazilly, barber here. His car was locked and the key was not in it.

Farm Superintendent Speaks At St. Albert FUA Meeting

Mr. G. E. Delong, Superintendent of the Lacombe Experimental Farm, was guest speaker at a recent meeting sponsored by the St. Albert F.U.A.

Meeting was held in the Community Hall at St. Albert.

Mr. De Long illustrated his address with a series of slides, which included items of particular interest to those present.

EXTENSIVE KNOWLEDGE

His extensive knowledge of agriculture in its many phases gathered over a period of thirty years' continuous service at the Lacombe Experimental Farm, together with a sincere and kindly personality, assured his listeners of a pleasant and profitable evening.

Among various agricultural problems and their solutions, dealt with by Mr. De Long were the following:

The need for wider use of grasses and legumes, and their proper place on every farm, was stressed.

A newer trend, veering away from the accepted method of keeping summerfallow black was noted with interest.

A planned crop rotation over a period of years, rather than black summerfallow, has provided the Lacombe farm with some very interesting facts and data, proving

Our Chinese Friends

That may seem a strange caption, in view of the fact that the hordes of Chinese Communists in Korea may soon be killing our Canadian soldiers on the bloody Pusan front.

But not all Chinese, by any means are Communist, and those lead by Chiang Kai-Shek, leader of China when we was our ally against Japan, are just as much opposed to Communism as any of us. Any feeling of antagonism against Chinese businessmen in Alberta would be unfair and unjust, just for that reason.

The Chinese embassy in Washington states that the great majority of Chinese in their homeland are anti-communist. There are persistent rumors of conditions close to civil war in the southern part of China. It is even being gossiped that two Chinese Communist generals are ready to come over to Chiang's side with their armies, if somebody will put up enough money.

Communists all over the world have been doing their best to upset the democratic system of government and whenever they can, cause bloody revolution to secure their evil designs.

Why not turn the tables on them? Let's use our money and brains to bring about counter-revolution in China now before the people are wholly indoctrinated with Communist philosophy. Red China looks like an excellent field to stage some experiments along these lines, and Kai-Shek's island fortress of Formosa would be a good place to cook up ingredients for the experiment.

False Prophets of Doom

Tuesday night of last week passed, and the world did not come to an end. If that was no surprise to the average Christian, it must have been a terrible shock to the 21 misguided souls cooped up in a two-room shack in an interior B.C. town.

Christianity is sadly divided a thousand ways, because every reader of the Bible has the privilege of interpreting for himself what is written therein. But when Christ said: "No man knoweth the day nor the hour when the Son of Man cometh" the meaning was plain.

It is entirely scriptural to look for a day when Christ will come again, and this world, as we know it now, will come to an end. It is blasphemy for anyone to predict that day and hour. Numerous self-styled prophets of the past have "foretold" doomsday, but the world has continued on its course despite these false prophets of doom.

A False War

Some months ago we heard it suggested that war with Russia, if and when such a holocaust occurs, would start as a battle between ideologies or as a defensive fight to prevent the world from being pummeled up by Moscow. After that, it could develop rapidly into a struggle between believers in God and the godless.

Communism is as much a religion as Christianity, but one of the big differences between the two is that Communists are fanatical in the propagation of their doctrine. Religion was to Marx the "opiate of the masses" but the men who have translated his teachings into action have fed the masses with a much more powerful and, unfortunately, debilitating drug — worship of the state.

But would destruction of the Red Army destroy the philosophy, or religion, of Communism?

The answer is 'no'. Mere destruction of the Red Army would be a false war. The only way to destroy Communism is for those of us who profess to be Christians to propagandize our own belief in Christian democracy and put into practice the principles to which we pay lip service when we attend church. Failure to do so will result in victory for Communism by default, Red Army or no Red Army.

Note and Comment

Democracy develops demagogues because there are those willing to believe what they hear without knowing whether it is true or false.

Men are easily diverted from the truth by sly appeals to their emotions and most of them haven't sense enough to know that somebody is giving them the works.

Odds & Ends

By T. W. PUE

An odd situation is in the making in Jasper Place village, with the Police Chief on suspension because of alleged indiscretions unbecoming an upholder of law and order. The Council of Jasper Place have taken this action pending a full investigation by the Attorney General's department.

Police Chief Kenny said at the time he would leave for the coast for a well-earned holiday, and in a way it's too bad he didn't go. Instead he has remained in town and by what I read in the papers is trying to stir up public opinion in his favour.

Now, I disagree entirely with this. Mr. Kenny is not an elected official. He is employed by the council, who are representatives of the people, to do a certain job. Electioneering is not part of a Police Chief's job. Besides it shouldn't matter to the Attorney General what anybody thinks — General what anybody thinks — the investigator's report all that is needed to settle the question.

Appeals to the public in a matter of this kind are out of place and definitely not in good taste.

AUTOCRATIC BUREAUCRATS

In South Edmonton, Town Planner Noel Dant's action in declaring a lighted sign "Jesus Saves" in front of the Bethel Baptist Church illegal is meeting with a storm of protest. Under the guise of town planning, five-year planning or any other kind of planning, there is no place in our democratic system of government for any bureaucrat to dictate to any church what they shall have or shall not have in their doctrines and principles. The Baptist Church has had the traditional role in history of being unorthodox and "non-conformist" in practice and doctrine, and Edmonton Baptists don't appear willing at this time to forsake that role.

It's a long time since Government's sought to interfere with religious doctrine. If Mr. Dant can force the Baptists to take down their "Jesus Saves" sign, can he not then cook up a law prescribing the height of a church steeple, the size of the cross atop the Catholic Church, or the number of stained glass windows he'll permit in an Anglican Church?

We can get along with without Noel Dant. We cannot sacrifice our principles of religious freedom to a narrow autocratic civic department.

IS THIS CHURCH POLICY?

In a recent CBC forum on the essential role of the Church today, the opinion was expressed that the Christian Church should lend its support to the co-operative movement because the co-operatives are non-profit organizations, working to bring more of the good things of this world to the people.

This would be a new role for the Christian Church. Heretofore, in its broadest aspects, the Church has concerned itself with the welfare (principally the spiritual welfare) of all mankind; and in its narrower aspects with the welfare of those who hold certain religious beliefs.

But here is a proposal to have it take sides among competitors in competitive business.

If all co-operatives were wholly good, and all their competitors were wholly bad, there might be some reason in the proposal.

But co-operatives are composed of human beings with human frailties and shortcomings, and these weaknesses are reflected in the organizations themselves. There are many excellent co-operatives in the country; but, like everyone else they are exposed to temptations, and it is possible for them to degenerate into would-be-monopolies, tax-dodgers, and seekers after special privileges, as some of them have been known to do.

On the other hand, the great bulk of humanity's needs have always been supplied by men who invest their own money and their time and talent in whatever business they think they can succeed in. They work hard serving the public and accept as reward whatever gain or loss their efforts can make the business yield.

These people do render a necessary service to their fellow men. They have to meet competition from all comers; and if they find themselves unable to compete they disappear from the scene and others step into their places. Their value to the community is indicated by the extent to which the public patronize them.

If we could look into the hearts of all men we would probably find that the good and bad exist in about the same proportion among the co-operatives as among their competitors. We would also find that the public can be depended on to take its business to whatever agencies best serve its needs, every man being free to deal where he will.

If the Church should undertake to alter this arrangement by throwing its lot with either the co-operatives or their competitors, it is to be feared that in doing so it would cease to be the guide and servant of humanity and become the instrument of a single class.

While Chinese Communists are fighting the United Nations in Korea, rumors talk of a new civil war in China that may uproot the Red dictatorship.

No, thank you, Mrs. MMB of Lougheed.

As a professional soldier I am proud of the Canadian Army and I would hate to see it contaminated by criminals who have been confined to keep them away from civilian society. Would you like your son to serve shoulder to shoulder with a convict, knowing that a soldier's very life depends on having honest, courageous buddies at his side?

Advice to the Ignorant

Dear Sir—I wish to say a few words regarding two letters which appeared in your paper.

To "Frankie" I'd like to say, "Any fool can do what you did on Christmas Eve, but a man, after reading the article you referred to, would have taken it to heart and benefitted by it."

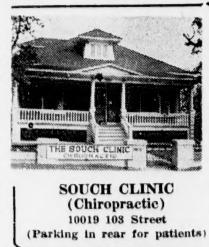

To Ed Nixon, I would suggest he look up last September's issue of Reader's Digest, and read the article "Why I Believe in God," which was written by a one-time atheist.

I feel very sorry for ignorant people like you.

Municipalities Provide Key To Alberta Civil Defence

Alberta's municipalities will provide the key to the province's Civil Defence programs, according to Premier E. C. Manning.

A widespread scheme to prepare Albertans to meet any emergency, in either war or peace, is being promoted by the provincial government, in co-operation with cities, towns and municipal districts.

Civil Defence plans are moving into high gear in view of the growing international crisis. Yet officials stress the fact they're not trying to 'scare anybody,' but are merely being prepared for any eventualities.

The value of the Civil Defence organization in peace-time emergencies is also being stressed.

Alberta appears to be leading the nation in formation of a Civil Defence organization. While most work is still confined to the planning stage, within a few months

NEW RECTOR IS NAMED

A new Anglican Rector has been appointed for Redwater, Bon Accord and Gibbons, it has been announced by the Anglican Bishop of Edmonton.

TO CLASSIFY

ALBERTA TOWNS

Alberta points will be classified in three categories — target, cushion, and reception areas.

The target areas will probably include Edmonton, Calgary, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge, along with perhaps Redwater, Leduc or Turner Valley.

Cushion areas will comprise those communities immediately surrounding the target areas. Edmonton's cushion areas will be St. Albert, Morinville, Fort Saskatchewan, Stony Plain and Devon.

The reception areas are farther out. Around Edmonton they would include such communities as Legal, Clyde, Gibbons, Radway, Tofield, Millet and Edson.

Cities themselves will be broken into community units, with community halls or schools to be used as Civil Defence headquarters.

Defence experts declare that only about three per cent of the population will actually be required in the Civil Defence organization.

All citizens, however, will receive defence education through varied means.

School children will receive training in the schools, and adults will receive Civil Defence education through various organizations such as community leagues, and through the press, radio, booklets, and other mediums.

Knowledge of the kind of attacks to be expected is the best means for defence against them, says Hon. C. E. Gerhart, Alberta cabinet minister in charge of Civil Defence.

The objective is to teach every person how to protect himself in the event of atomic or other kinds of bombing attack.

Formation of Civil Defence organizations is something radically new in Canada, but will prove of extreme value to the welfare of the country.

Had there been Civil Defence groups organized at the time of the Leduc Hotel explosion, or the Manitoba floods, they would have been able to contribute greatly to meeting the emergencies.

WARNING SYSTEM

A national warning system is being set up by the RCAF that will operate on the fringes of Canada.

A 'reasonable' time of warning will be given in the event of an attack, according to G. R. Howsam, provincial defence co-ordinator.

Local Civil Defence groups, now being formed in many Alberta points, will be federated in a general organization next March.

Meanwhile, a party of officers from the National Defence College of Canada in Kingston, Ont., is in the midst of a tour of North America defence installations.

WINTER WONDERLAND is the way to describe Alberta these days. Here a skier finds the hills knee-deep with snow in the Foothills of the Rockies. Alberta has its share of winter sports paradises, just as it excels in summer vacation spots.

New Road Safety Signs Promote Better Driving

New safety signs are being erected throughout Alberta to promote safer driving on the province's highways.

The signs were erected for the department of economic affairs, in co-operation with the department of public works.

Purposes of the signs is to warn drivers just before entering provincial highways to drive safely, heed traffic signs and signals and railway crossings. The signs are illuminated day and night.

There are six signs at Edmonton, four in Calgary, one in Lethbridge and one at Medicine Hat.

Each sign is 10 feet by 25 feet with large lettering. They will be changed every three months.

The signs here are located on the Jasper highway, Calgary highway, Clover Bar road, Fort Saskatchewan road, Namao road and St. Albert Trail.

"FLOWER OF DELIGHT," Laurette Luez, has many good reasons for being called a delightful flower in her role of a beauty of the harem who distracts Errol Flynn somewhat in M-G-M's film version of Kipling's "Kim." It'll show at local theatres soon.

Alberta Threatened By Juvenile Gangs

The threat of organized hoodlum gangs in Edmonton, like those which have sprung up in Calgary, Vancouver and other Canadian cities, appears strong as a new wave of juvenile crime sweeps the city.

Car thefts, truancy, and vandalism have apparently reached an all-time high here, surpassing by far that of the war years.

Nearly 700 cases of truancy were reported in city schools during 1950. Car thefts in Edmonton reached a new high of 735 last year, and police blame juveniles for the increase.

A typical case involving a Edmonton teenager arose in police court this week as James King, 19, of 9357 91 street, was sentenced to two months in Fort Saskatchewan for speeding and jail break.

King was arrested in Jasper Place Monday night on a charge of speeding. He was lodged in the west end town's jail, but escaped by kicking two boards off his wooden cell.

He returned to his car and having duplicate keys, drove away. For an hour and a half King eluded Jasper Place, city and Mounted Police.

He was rearrested by two city detectives near 90 avenue and 91 street.

Appearing in police court, Magistrate Cunningham of Jasper Place sentenced him to two months imprisonment, fined him $25 and costs for speeding, and suspended his driving licence for the rest of the year.

STABBING AFFRAY

Meanwhile, two other teenagers are being lodged in South Side Boys Home following a stabbing affray at the home of Mike Hurst, 11 Connors Rd., on New Year's Eve.

Two men were injured in the affray, one requiring hospital attention.

Bert Sumner Leaves For Red Poll Meet

ST. ALBERT — Bert Sumner of St. Albert, will leave to attend the Red Poll Convention to be held in Toronto this month.

Jack R. Atkinson and Jack G. Harrold plan to attend the Red Poll Convention in Toronto and then go on to Ohio to visit the famous Malabar Farm, owned by the author, Louis Bromfield, whose writings have done so much to popularize the new farming methods.

Mrs. Violette Harrold, on an extended trip in the east, is at present visiting at the Carson Latimers' home in Niagara Falls. Carson Latimer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Latimer of R.R.2, St. Albert.

Mr. John Crozier will attend the convention of the Milk Producers' Board, to be held in Toronto this month.

Trucks Overcome Starting Trouble

Several Redwater trucks have overcome cold weather starting trouble by installing a new type of engine heater.

It is distributed locally by Capital Radio, who report very favorable results from these units.

teen-agers, sentencing of two young men to penitentiary on a car theft charge, and the crime spree of two juveniles who broke into five country stores.

The wave of car thefts in the city has police worried more than any other juvenile crime.

AMA ASKS POLICE ACTION

The Alberta Motor Association, at a recent Edmonton executive meeting, called on police this week to take action to halt the thefts.

Acting Mayor Wm. Hawrelak says "there is no doubt measures will have to be taken to stop this."

During the past six months car thefts have shown an alarming increase, due in most cases to the operation of juvenile gangs.

The thefts have reached such a serious stage that more rigorous action on the part of the authorities and stiffer penalties for such juvenile crimes are being demanded.

but it had been moved during the night. As this news goes to press there is still no trace of it. Meanwhile a strange car was noticed left on a side street, that has since been claimed by a resident of Athabasca. Meanwhile, all car owners are taking more precautions to prevent theft.

At the annual congregational meeting held in St. Luke's Anglican Church, following Sunday evening prayer service, Rev. D. V. A. Browne was chairman and reports of the different committees were heard. Election of officers for the ensuing year included: People's Warden, G. R. Mealing; Vicar's Warden, A. W. Nelson; Members of the Vestry: Mr. J. Fry, James Berwick, R. E. Armstrong, Mr. R. H. Milligan and Mrs. George MacLachlan. The lay delegate to synod is G. R. Mealing with R. E. Armstrong as alternative. There was a good turnout at the service and meeting.

Two Edmonton men's curling rinks visited Clyde last Saturday evening and were defeated by local curlers here. The Edmonton rink, skippered by S. G. Halberg, and consisting of K. Craven, Graham Main and S. F. Halberg lost to Ray Hallett, Norman Main, Bob McMillan and Andrew Saver. Bill Pelley's Edmonton rink, comrised of H. Haufman,

E. Lawson and G. Allen, were defeated by Gus Forsten, Joe Hess, Jack Fricker and Bert Woodcock of Clyde. The teams were entertained at luncheon after the games at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Main and Mr. and Mrs. R. McMillan.

Guests at the Clyde United Church on Sunday morning were Lynn Bearisto and Garry Nicholson of Westlock, who with Gordon Aultman and Alson Bishop of Clyde, gave reports on the 31st Session of the Boys' Parliament held at Lethbridge during the Christmas holidays.

The boys left by chartered buses from Edmonton at 7:30 a.m. on Tuesday, following Christmas. During the same period the CGIT mid-year Provincial Conference was also held at Lethbridge. Fifty-six elected delegates from all over Alberta attended the Parliament. Senator W. A. Buchanan was the Lieutenant Governor; Harold Huston of Three Hills was the Premier, and Stewart Munroe of Calgary was the Leader of the Opposition. The Parliament was housed in the Scoutmaster Youth Centre, and used the Lethbridge Courtroom furnishings. The members were billeted in the Central High School building, and had their meals at the Marquis Hotel.

The main bills dealt with during the Session were: "The Taxis Code of Beliefs," "Resolution on Total Abstinence," "Resolution of Parliament to Boys' Work Board," "Finance Campaign," and "Boys' Work Programs in the Province." The National Athletic contest was also discussed. A regional council was established to supervise boys' work in Westlock, Clyde, Barrhead, Jarvie, and Mayerthorpe districts. At the first meeting an executive was appointed of which Gordon Aultman was elected President and Lynn Bristo, Secretary.

The delegates report there was not a dull moment throughout the whole term of the parliament. Social functions included banquets, provided by the City of Lethbridge, the Lions Club, and the CGIT of Lethbridge, while Teen Club of Scoutmaster Centre staged a social and dance in their honor. The 130 Parliament and Conference delegates and leaders were taken on a sight-seeing tour in 25 cars. The YMCA swimming pool was also open to them.
